THE SALVATION ARMY
COMMUNITY CENTER PROGRAM
BEHAVIOUR CONTRACT

WHILE AT THE SALVATION ARMY OR WHILE ON SALVATION ARMY PROPERTY

I understand that The Salvation Army is a Christian organization and that the children who attend are expected to abide by this contract. These are high standards for the children, but we do not want to train your children to be anything less than what God would have them be.

I will respect God and others by.....

Not speaking in a harmful way to others, this includes name calling, cussing trash talking, suggestive talk, threatening another child or adult, arguing with other children or adults and raising my voice.

Keeping my hands and feet to myself, no hitting, pushing or in anyway harming another person. If I have a problem I will find a leader immediately.

Obeying all leaders, showing respect of person and property, anything I break or vandalize will mean permanent dismissal from the gym. If I am asked to sit in a certain place, take part in an activity, participate in all of the programs activities, I will do so with a good attitude.

I understand that if I am not a good GOOD CITIZEN in obeying this contract, my parents will be called and I will be suspended. If I am continually not a GOOD CITIZEN, I will not be allowed to come back at all.
